

The New and Improved Sharon Public Library will provide:

A large community room for up to 120 people which can be divided into two program spaces, and available for afterhours use. Complete with a kitchenette, bathrooms, the latest audio video and smart board technology.

Quiet study rooms, plus a meeting room with seating for up to 20 people which can be used for ESL tutoring or other small meetings.

A sound deadening office pod complete with electrical, wifi, cell phone and skype capability for small business meetings for up to 4 people.

Expanded collection space for more fiction and non-fiction books, paperbacks, and large print, audio and video collections.

An expanded technology space with computers dedicated to adults.

A children's library complete with storytime, craft and activity space, and a pre-school early learning space which enhances early learning activities, basic literacy and educational support for all ages. Family bathroom and changing station.

A tween space for middle schoolers with enhanced collections and homework computer learning stations.

A young adult library for teens. This space will have a makerspace that is used to supports STEAM (Science, Technology, Engineering, Art and Math) education. It will have quiet study space, computer homework station, tutoring spaces and room for group activities. Enhanced collections will include, college and career guides, young adult books and magazines, and audio and video collections which support the interests of those in this age group. A teen media studio for the production of audio and video projects.

Separate reference and technology area for adults, complete with business, professional, genealogical, and other online databases.

A local history room where you can research information about Sharon, view the old School yearbooks or work on your genealogy and other local history projects.

A comfortable, quiet reading room to enjoy your newspapers and magazines.

A book donation room with space for the Friends of the Library to offer ongoing book sales.

A building which is fully handicapped-accessible for the physically, hearing and sight challenged.