Whereas it has pleased our Heavenly Father in his all-wise Providence, to remove from this earthly life Mr. Holmes Ammidown, a native of this town, and formerly a fellow-citizen, it is deemed fitting that the Committee of the Free Public Library should give expression to their feelings and sentiments in relation to Mr. Ammidown whose decease at the age of eighty-two years, occurred on the 2^d instant at his winter home in Florida, therefore:-

Resolved that in the death of Mr. Ammidown

we deplore the loss of one who was ardently devoted to the moral and intellectual prosperity and growth of the town and who, by the erection of the building and conveying to the town, by a perpetual lease, the use of the rooms for the Library, Reading-room and Museum, and by his numerous other benefactions including more than a thousand volumes of books, many of them rare and of great value, and also over fifty sets of his Historical Collections, for use and exchange, has won for him the highest regard of the people and has in these gifts left a monument of his large hearted liberality, and of his attachment to the inhabitants of the town.

Resolved that we cherish the memory of Mr Ammidown as a man of untiring industry, indefatigable perseverance and well earned success, manifesting during his long life an ardent interest in the advancement of the town in all that is good and noble, and aiding with enthusiasm in the accomplishment of this object. And we desire to acknowledge the town's indebtedness to him in so large measure for the establishment of an institution, so important as supplementary to the general interests of education in the town, and which we trust will be of lasting benefit to the successive generations of men that are to come after us.

Resolved that the Committee, in behalf of the town, tender to the family of Mr Ammidown, in this time of bereavement, their warm sympathies and sincere condolence.

Resolved that the Sess be instructed to enter these resolutions upon our records and to forward a copy of the same to the family of Mr Ammidown.
