LINCOLN STREET

(Old #15) This was once the old Academy building which was built on what is now property of the Congregational Church, built in 1835. It was a private school and didn't last long as a school.

The Come-Outers held their meetings here and the upper part was called Come-Outers Hall. It was moved to this site sometime between 1850-1870.

In 1892 it was one of the houses owned by Levi McIntire, in 1913 taxed to Charles Needham, in 1927 through 1947 to James Casey. In 1954 Theresa M. LaFlame sold to Donald and Margaret J. Willette.

In 1961 Robert F. Willette built an outside stairway. In 1966 owned by Thomas Reece. Owner 1974 is Paul Silva who has made many improvements and rents apartments.

Corrections:

Okay through 1947 (James Casey)

The house was purchased by Harry V. and Robert F. Willette from the Casey estate.

Donald and Margaret never owned this house.

No stairway was added by Robert Willette or anyone else

Thomas Reece never owned this house.

Harry and Robert sold this house to Paul Silva.
