

The Wilton Public and Gregg Free Library's Social Media Policies

SOCIAL MEDIA POLICY

The library participates in various “social media” applications whereby library staff and community members can interact through virtual (Internet) communication. The library regards social media applications in the same way as its other information resources in accordance with its mission of serving Wilton’s needs for informational, educational, cultural and recreational pursuits.

Definition of Social Media

Social media is defined as any website or application which allows users to share information. Social media can include, but is not limited to, blogging, instant messaging, social networking sites, wikis, and posts to the library website. Examples of such sites are Twitter, Facebook, MySpace, YouTube, and various blogging sites like Blogger and WordPress.

Privacy

The library does not collect, maintain, or otherwise use the personal information stored on any third party site in any way other than to communicate library related information with users on that site. Users may remove themselves at any time from the library’s “friends” or “fan” lists, or request that the library remove them. Users should be aware that third party websites have their own privacy policies and should proceed accordingly. Users are encouraged to protect their privacy by not posting personally identifying information, such as last name, school, age, phone number, or address.

Parental Controls

As with more traditional resources, the library does not act in place of or in the absence of a parent and is not responsible for enforcing any restrictions which a parent or guardian may place on a minor’s use of social media applications.

- Photos, images, or other media that fall in any of the above categories

Liability and Participation

The Wilton Public and Gregg Free Library assumes no liability regarding any event or interaction that takes place by any participant in any library sponsored social media, and does not endorse content outside of the pages maintained by the library and the posts created by library staff in the course of their work duties. The library reserves the right to use any comments, posts, and messages on library social media sites for use in public relations and marketing materials. The library will remove any personal information from the comment/post/message such as last name, school, phone, or e-mail.

The library is not responsible for other people viewing or accessing personal accounts/profiles that are left open on computers in the library.

Participation in the library's social media implies agreement with all library policies, including its Social Media Policy and Computer and Internet Policy, and the Terms of Service of each individual third-party service.

By posting a comment or other content you agree to indemnify the Wilton Public and Gregg Free Library and its officers and employees from and against all liabilities, judgments, damages, and costs (including attorney's fees) incurred which arise out of, or are related to the content that you post.

The Library also reserves the right to edit or modify any submissions in response to requests, feedback or other commentary.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, the library is not obligated to take any such actions, and will not be responsible or liable for content posted by any subscriber in any forum, message board, or other area within the library's social media.

If a user does not agree to these terms, they are not to use services provided.
